DETAILED ACTION

1. This application is in condition for allowance except for the following formal matters:

Claim Objections

1. Claim 6 recites the limitations "the dispenser mechanism" (line 3) and "the lower housing" (line 6). There is insufficient antecedent basis for this limitation in the claim.
2. Claim 7 recites the limitations "the first lever mechanism" (line 10) and "the lower housing" (line 5). There is insufficient antecedent basis for this limitation in the claim.
3. Claim 8 recites the limitations "the dispenser mechanism" (line 3) and "the lower housing" (line 5) and "the first lever mechanism" (line 10). There is insufficient antecedent basis for this limitation in the claim. Also opening;applying Examiner notes would better read as opening; applying.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 112

4. The following is a quotation of the second paragraph of 35 U.S.C. 112:

The specification shall conclude with one or more claims particularly pointing out and distinctly claiming the subject matter which the applicant regards as his invention.
5. Claim 6 is rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, second paragraph, as being indefinite for failing to particularly point out and distinctly claim the subject matter which applicant regards as the invention.

Art Unit: 3651

Claim 6 recites "the extending leg is set back from an opening situated on a fore wall of the lower housing and the hook element of the lever mechanism extends into the dispenser zoneapplying sufficient force to a trigger mechanism that contacts the dispenser mechanism so that the dispenser mechanism moves forward" -- Examiner notes both zoneapplying appears to be two words (as one) and also the phrase is confusing in that "the lever mechanism extends into the dispenser zone applying sufficient force to a trigger mechanism" is not accurately depicting what is actually happening within the invention. Examiner believes that possibly there is a semicolon missing of some sort.

Conclusion

6. The prior art made of record and not relied upon is considered pertinent to applicant's disclosure.
